Hunter Valley Weekend Escape – 1, 2 or 3 nights

Just two hours' drive north of Sydney, there's a contented world of wide, open spaces, featuring magnificent vineyards, sparkling waterways, rugged mountains, forests, and fascinating towns reflecting Australia's colonial heritage.

The Hunter Valley is Australia's oldest wine-producing area, with winemaking traditions dating back more than 150 years. The valley houses some of Australia's most famous wineries, including Tyrells, Lindemans and McGuigans, and is sprinkled with smaller, boutique vineyards.

A mecca for wine enthusiasts over recent decades, the Hunter Valley also offers first-class cuisine, which has emerged to meet the exacting needs of those dedicated to good living. There are dozens of cosy guesthouses, villas, resorts, cabins and motels. Around here, you can take a horse drawn carriage, soar in a hot-air balloon, tee off from world-class golf courses, or take a leisurely cycle through the rolling countryside.

To the north, the rich hills of the Upper Hunter present other opportunities for discovering the essence of Australia's rural heritage. Visit Singleton's Military Museum, or taste Upper Hunter wines at local wineries. Lake Glenbawn is popular for sailing and fishing and the Wollemi National Park is a haven for camping.

If this sound like your kind of short break and you want to get out of the hustle and bustle of the city for the weekend, then why not contact us. Let us organise it all for you!!!
